

The Governance Framework and Governance Reform

Module 2, Topic 1

Summary

In this presentation, we will explore the concept of governance, the various actors in a governance system, and the importance of good governance. We will also cover the “how” of governance reform, looking at the many ways in which countries can pursue improved governance. Finally, we will briefly survey how to measure and evaluate changes in governance over time.