

Introduction to Budget Work Module 1, Topic 1

Summary

This presentation introduces the social accountability approach of "budget work," or civil society-led budget research and activities. It presents the tools and applications used in budget work, the benefits and risks of this type of approach, and makes an argument for civil society's involvement in such approaches in order to influence public policy and expenditures..