

Introduction to Participatory Budgeting Module 2, Topic 1

Summary

This presentation covers the basics of participatory budgeting, looking at the various dimensions of the tool and the reasons for which it is an important and effective tool for citizens seeking to participate in governance at the local and national levels.